Arnall Golden Gregory's Private Wealth Group Again Achieves Highest Ranking in Chambers' High Net Worth Guide

ATLANTA – Arnall Golden Gregory is pleased to announce that its Private Wealth Group has again received the highest honor possible from Chambers and Partners in its newly released 2019 High Net Worth Guide. Chambers is the leading ranking service for lawyers and law firms worldwide.

AGG is one of only three top-rated firms in the state of Georgia to achieve a Band 1 ranking in the Guide. Five of the Firm's Private Wealth attorneys are also individually recognized, including Bertram L. Levy, Suzanne Tucker Plybon, Jeremy T. Ware, and Michael L. Van Cise, all of whom are individually ranked, as well as Kathryn Baldwin Hecker, who is named an "Associate to Watch".

The Firm's Private Wealth Group represents high net worth U.S. and international individuals in sophisticated wealth transfer planning matters, as well as fiduciaries facing multifaceted, complex issues in estate and trust administration.

Chambers and Partners, an internationally acclaimed research group, established the High Net Worth guide in 2016 as a publication specifically aimed at the private and international wealth industry. The HNW guide is produced by a team of researchers who conduct thousands of interviews with attorneys, clients, and their close advisors.
