Arnall Golden Gregory Partner Neil Hoffman Discusses Stark Law Fraud and Abuse Risk for Healthcare Providers

ATLANTA – Neil W. Hoffman, Ph.D., a partner in the Healthcare Practice at Arnall Golden Gregory LLP, shared his insights about the Physician Self-Referral Law in the webinar “Stark Law: Recent Trends, Developments and Updates.”

The Stark Law is a top priority for policymakers tackling healthcare fraud and abuse, and it can be easy for providers to run afoul of the law.

Dr. Hoffman and Chris DeMeo of Seyfarth Shaw LLP discussed the fundamentals of the law as well as recent updates.

Dr. Hoffman provides transactional and regulatory representation to health and life-sciences clients, including hospitals and health systems, long-term care providers, home health providers and hospice providers. He advises on regulatory compliance while helping clients achieve their business goals.
