

PRESS RELEASE

Jason Bring Named Senior Fellow of Litigation Counsel of America

ATLANTA – Arnall Golden Gregory partner Jason E. Bring has been named a Senior Fellow of the Litigation Counsel of America (LCA), a trial lawyer honorary society composed of less than one-half of 1 percent of American lawyers.

Mr. Bring is co-leader of AGG’s Healthcare Litigation Practice and its Post Acute-Care Industry Team. Outside of AGG, he serves as Chair of the Post-Acute and Long-Term Services Practice Group of the American Health Lawyers Association, the nation’s largest educational organization devoted to legal issues in the healthcare field. He frequently speaks and writes on emerging healthcare issues and governmental regulatory initiatives.

Mr. Bring represents nursing homes, hospitals, hospice providers, and other institutional providers in litigation, governmental investigations, regulatory compliance and administrative disputes.

He defends providers in False Claims Act (whistleblower) cases and investigations nationally; defends nursing homes against liability claims throughout the southeast U.S.; represents providers in certificate of need (CON) matters; and pursues administrative appeals on behalf of providers to recover and maximize reimbursement under the Medicare and Medicaid programs. He also serves on the Board of Directors for the Georgia Hospice and Palliative Care Organization.

Best Lawyers in America has recognized Mr. Bring as a leader in his field since 2013.

Fellowship in the LCA is by invitation only. Fellows are selected based upon excellence and accomplishment in litigation, both at the trial and appellate levels, and superior ethical reputation. Senior Fellow status in the society is reserved for advanced commitment to and support of the LCA, Diversity Law Institute and Trial Law Institute. Mr. Bring has been an LCA Fellow for seven years.
