

PRESS RELEASE

Arnall Golden Gregory Partner Jeremy Ware Elected a Fellow of the American College of Trust and Estate Counsel

Jeremy Ware, a partner in Arnall Golden Gregory's Private Wealth Practice, has been elected a Fellow of the American College of Trust and Estate Counsel ("ACTEC").

ACTEC is a professional organization of approximately 2,600 lawyers who have demonstrated the highest level of integrity, commitment to the profession, competence and experience as trust and estate counselors.

Individual lawyers meeting the criteria for membership are nominated by Fellows of the College, and are subjected to careful review by both state and national membership selection committees prior to consideration by the regents of the College.

Fellows are selected on the basis of experience, professional reputation and ability in the fields of trusts and estates and on the basis of having made substantial contributions to these fields through lecturing, writing, teaching and bar activities.

Mr. Ware focuses his practice on complex wealth transfer strategies, business succession planning, international estate planning for non-resident aliens, wealth transfer tax implications, estate administration and charitable planning. He has handled numerous ultra-high net worth estate administrations.

He also has helped clients gift millions of dollars to beneficiaries in tax-efficient ways and accomplish significant charitable gifts.

Arnall Golden Gregory's Private Wealth Practice is national in scope and represents high net worth individuals in sophisticated wealth transfer planning matters as well as fiduciaries facing multi-faceted issues occurring during the estate administration process.

Practice Chair Bertram Levy and Vice-Chair Suzanne Tucker Plybon are also ACTEC Fellows.
