AGG's IP Practice Debuts in the WTR 1000 for 2020 Intellectual Property Attorneys Tucker Barr, Anuj Desai Again Recognized

ATLANTA – Arnall Golden Gregory is pleased to announce its Intellectual Property practice's debut in the World Trademark Review's WTR 1000 for 2020. Attorneys Tucker Barr and Anuj Desai have again been recognized as recommended experts in the 10th edition of the standalone publication to recommend individual lawyers worldwide who work in the trademark field. This is the first time the practice has been recognized.

Tucker and Anuj are partners in AGG's Intellectual Property Group, whose trademark team is mentioned in the guide as "immensely popular among mid-market companies," and "the firm's compact but mighty IP group is appreciated for its hands-on and cost-effective management of portfolios, confident stewardship of complex trademark disputes and litigation, and social media expertise."

Trademark protector and contract negotiator Tucker Barr is described by a client as: "Tucker understands what you need from a business perspective and gives realistic and practical advice that is aligned with your commercial objectives. He never lets you spend money on anything that you would not get value from and is always there when you need him." Local peers call him a "young and energetic partner with vim and vigor who is not afraid to go up against anyone".

Anuj Desai, who serves on INTA's Alternative Dispute Resolution Committee as a Subcommittee Chair, is lauded for managing the trademark practice astutely and introducing workflow changes to enhance efficiency. He is noted that he "offers a level of customer service that is second to none. He is extremely well versed in IP law, prompt in his responses and exceptionally accommodating. Patient in explaining his recommendations, he is a true gentleman in every sense of the word."

WTR 1000 conducts research over several months and reviews submissions from around the world to determine which attorneys will receive recognition.
