

PRESS RELEASE

Arnall Golden Gregory and IP Partners Tucker Barr, Anuj Desai Recognized in 2021 WTR 1000

ATLANTA – Arnall Golden Gregory is pleased to announce the inclusion of the firm’s Intellectual Property practices in World Trademark Review’s 2021 WTR 1000 for a second year. Partners J. Tucker Barr and Anuj Desai are again recognized as leading trademark practitioners.

Tucker and Anuj are partners in AGG’s Intellectual Property practice, recognized in the guide as “an ideal fit both for mid-market companies and for larger entities with complex international portfolios. Arnall Golden Gregory operates cost-effectively across the trademark lifecycle, showcasing a deft touch on brand management, litigation and IP commercialization. The partners here delegate smartly, but don’t routinely push work down; they play a hands-on role to drive effective problem solving and successful outcomes.”

Trademark protector and contract negotiator Tucker Barr is described as “a versatile practitioner who serves as a vital strategic ally to start-ups as they carve out strong brand identities, and to established companies as they protect their turf.”

Anuj Desai, who also serves as Subcommittee Chair on the International Trademark Association’s (INTA) Alternative Dispute Resolution Committee, is lauded as “an IP partner with extensive litigation and transactional experience. He maintains close and longstanding relationships with clients, who consider him a trusted adviser.”

WTR 1000 conducts research over several months and reviews submissions from around the world to determine which attorneys will receive recognition. Read the full description here.
