AGG GROWS CORPORATE AND ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT PRACTICES IN ATLANTA WITH ADDITION OF PARTNER ANSLY MOYER

Atlanta, November 3, 2022 – Arnall Golden Gregory (AGG) is pleased to announce the arrival of Anslly P. Moyer as a partner in the firm's Atlanta office. She brings more than 15 years of legal experience to the Corporate & Finance practice and the Public Finance & Economic Development industry team, where she represents development authorities and other local government entities, lenders, and other commercial entities related to the financing of major economic development projects.

"As our team continues to serve as a strategic partner for companies seeking incentives throughout the United States and for government authorities and the various organizations driving important development throughout the Southeast, we are thrilled to welcome Anslly and continue growing our team in tandem with the region," said Andrew J. Schutt, co-chair of AGG's Public Finance & Economic Development team. "Anslly brings amazing experience and a reputation for results-driven counsel and innovative solutions to accomplish her clients' ambitious projects."

Anslly focuses her practice on representing corporate, not-for-profit, and governmental clients in various roles on taxable and tax-exempt public finance transactions, including as issuer's counsel, bond counsel, lender's counsel, or company counsel. She also serves as general counsel to local governmental authorities and guides clients through complex financial and corporate contracts, including loan agreements, purchase agreements, credit and liquidity facilities, and incentive agreements.

"I am thrilled to join AGG's Corporate & Finance practice and the firm's Public Finance & Economic Development team," said Anslly. "Combining my public finance practice and deep understanding of economic incentives with AGG's reputation for top-notch client service serves as a step forward in ensuring my clients continue receiving counsel of the highest quality."

Prior to joining AGG, Anslly practiced at several large Atlanta-based law firms with public finance and incentive practices.

Anslly earned her law degree from the University of Georgia School of Law and her undergraduate degree from Dartmouth College.
