AGG RECOGNIZED WITH 2025 ACCELERATION EXCELLENCE AWARD BY NETDOCUMENTS

ATLANTA, November 3, 2025 – Arnall Golden Gregory LLP (AGG) has received the 2025 Acceleration Excellence Award by NetDocuments for its innovative firmwide adoption of artificial intelligence (AI) technology.

The award honors AGG's strategic use of the ndMAX Legal AI Assistant and AI App Builder, which have transformed research workflows, accelerated document review, and improved client outcomes across the firm's practices.

"This recognition validates our strategic commitment to integrating AI thoughtfully across our firm's operations," said Jennifer Waite, AGG director of knowledge management. "By deploying ndMAX and the AI App Builder, we've enabled our attorneys to spend less time on routine research and document review and more time delivering the strategic counsel our clients value most. This is what purposeful AI adoption looks like in practice."

The NetDocuments Inspire Awards celebrate customers demonstrating outstanding knowledge, innovation, and passion in legal technology and excellence in the utilization of technology to create a better way to work and deliver exceptional legal services.

"Our customers use technology to do truly innovative work that benefits their teams and their clients," said Marco Poggio, vice president of customer success at NetDocuments. "We are proud to recognize those doing exceptional things and inspiring others across the legal profession."
